Harkins Appointed Technologies Manager for Anderson & Vreeland

Bryan, OH -- The appointment of Jessica Harkins as Technologies Manager for Anderson & Vreeland, Inc., is announced by Darin Lyon, Vice President and General Manager of Anderson & Vreeland, Inc., leading manufacturer and distributor of flexographic printing materials and equipment.

In her new position, Harkins will be responsible for managing all aspects of Anderson & Vreeland's technical service and support, along with expanding the company's relationship with trade organizations and educational institutions. This includes defining and designing customer and employee training programs; customer support procedures and practices; and maintaining technical relationships with A&V suppliers and partners.

“Jessica’s knowledge and experience is a perfect fit for her role as Technologies Manager for A&V,” said Darin Lyon. “She has so much to offer, including a natural ability to interact with our customers,” he added.

Ms. Harkins comes to A&V from EskoArtwork where she served as FIQ supervisor and leader of their FIQ Team. Responsibilities included Digital Flexo Suite and HD Flexo testing and implementation in North America. Previously she served as Technical Director for Schawk, responsible for testing digital flexo plates and photopolymer In-The-Round. Ms. Harkins received her Bachelor’s degree in Graphic Communications from Clemson University and was a TLMI and FTA scholarship recipient.

About Anderson & Vreeland, Inc.

Founded in 1961, Anderson & Vreeland offers customers a “systems approach” to flexo plate processing with state-of-the-art equipment, materials and technology. A&V supports these products with almost 50 years of experience and a nationwide staff of technical sales representatives thoroughly knowledgeable about the fine points of flexo. This experience results in smoother and easier integration of technical advancements affecting flexo prepress.
